3. Understanding the story

Are the statements true, false or not in the text?

Write down the lines from the story that helped you to find out if the statement was true or false. (Of course you don't have to write anything for statements that are "not in the text" ;-).) There is an example in the table:

	true	false	not in the text	lines from the text
Beispiel: Tom has to write a story about his summer holidays.	×			"Today I would like you to write a story about what you did in your summer holidays."
1. Tom likes camping.				_____
2. Before their trip, Tom and his dad bought lots of things.				_____
3. They found the campsite quickly.				_____
4. Their tent was very big.				_____
5. At night it was very rainy and windy.				_____
6. They slept well.				_____
7. When Tom climbed a tree, he fell and hurt his leg.				_____
8. The doctors at the hospital checked Tom's arms.				_____
9. When they came home from the hospital, Delia was already sleeping.				_____
10. Delia couldn't go out after that.				_____

4. Another Tom Gates story

Imagine you are Tom Gates. Write about another funny day during your holidays. You could write about what happened ...

- when you played football (and the ball flew into a window / a tree / the river / ...)
- when you went for a walk with your dog (and the dog saw a rabbit / ...)
- when you met your friends in the park (and ...)
- ...

Draw pictures to go with your text.
