It's a nice Saturday morning. Luke phones his friends. He wants to go to the pool with them. They meet at 10 am. The pool is very crowded because there are many people there. Luke puts on suncream because the sun is shining and it's very hot! Katie sits in the shade under a big tree. She watches the other children and eats a yummy ice cream. Sophie wants to go diving – that's swimming under water. She puts on her snorkel and her goggles and goes to the edge of the pool. Oh oh! The pool attendant is angry. He points at the sign: No jumping from the edge of the pool. Ben climbs on the five-metre board. He runs and jumps into the water. Splash! Luke makes a joke. He shouts, "Hey, Ben – better wear a helmet next time!"
