

1 READING What's on this weekend

____ / 8

First look at the activities in Southampton this weekend. Then read the posts from the teenagers at the bottom of the page and decide which activity each teenager could do. Write the correct letters into the boxes. Be careful – there are more teenagers than activities, so there's no activity for one of the teenagers.

Would you like to sing?

This Sunday Southampton Music Society is organising a singing festival for young people at the Town Hall.

It doesn't matter if you sing every day or you think you can't sing. Come along and join us. There will be groups for everyone with all different types of music.

Entrance is free. Doors open at 10 am.

Everyone under the age of 18
is welcome.

Weekend plans

- ☐ Adam (aged 12): Hi there! I want to do something this Saturday evening. I don't have more than £10. I'd like to see something new – I think cinema is boring. Any ideas?
- ☐ Max (aged 13): I want to do something sporty this Sunday. I like all kinds of sports and I'm very good at football. I like doing sport with other people.
- ☐ Beth (aged 13): Hey! It's my birthday this weekend and my friends and I want to celebrate on Saturday evening. We like dancing and doing sports.
- ☐ Nathan (aged 12): What could I do with my family this Sunday afternoon? We want to do something together, but not outside because it's going to rain.
- ☐ Jade (aged 13): I don't have plans for Sunday yet but I don't have any money. I want to meet new people. What can I do?
